Location

Hadrian House is located on Higham Place which links with New Bridge Street and is within walking distance of Northumberland Street, Eldon Square and the prime retail heart of the city centre.

Public transport links are excellent with Monument, Haymarket and Manors Metro stations within a short walk, along with a number of bus stops on New Bridge Street. The location also benefits from excellent road connectivity being within 100 metres of Newcastle Central Motorway (A167) which in turn gives direct access to the A1(M) north and south.

Other occupiers within the building include Zurich, Aon and Origen Financial Services.

Description

The main entrance to the building leads to a high quality 'manned' reception area incorporating glazed sliding doors, limestone floor, reception desk and provides access to the stairwell and two 10-person passenger lifts.

The seventh floor provides predominantly open-plan accommodation on a regular shaped floor plate. The space is currently fitted out with 52 work stations together with boardroom and meeting room facilities. The offices are fully carpeted with a suspended ceiling with recessed lighting, comfort cooling and dado trunking.

The seventh floor has panoramic views across the city.

The accommodation also benefits from kitchenette facilities and male and female WCs.

Car parking is available on-site within the basement.
