BNP PARIBAS REAL ESTATE’S BRISTOL TEAM
BOOSTED BY TWO APPOINTMENTS

BNP Paribas Real Estate has made two appointments, boosting its team in the firm’s Bristol office.

Keith Low has joined the Building Consultancy team as an Associate Director. Keith previously worked with Kenningtons in Swindon, and prior to that he was with Watts Group in Bristol.

At the same time Laura Green has joined to work for the Agency and Residential Consultancy teams. Laura previously worked for Rivendale Estates, the property investment and development company based in Clifton.

Jeremy Hughes, head of the Bristol office for BNP Paribas Real Estate, said: “These exciting appointments will further strengthen our growing team. Keith has strong experience in working with dilapidations and technical due diligence fields advising landlords, tenants, vendors and purchasers and will work with clients to help them make informed decisions on their property portfolios.

“Laura has has strong experience in the property sector and is well placed to deal with property enquiries, data bases and research analysis and will be a major asset to the team.”
